

LUIS GONZÁLEZ SEXTET introduce us: NEW YORK CITY SUITE

Just two years ago LUIS GONZALEZ, jazz pianist from Sant Feliu de Guixols (Spain), had his first album "Cançons" on PSM Music. As a trio, presents his personal adaptation of a series of traditional Catalan songs. A singular disc with the category of "historic."

LUIS GONZÁLEZ, one more newyorker citizen

LUIS GONZALEZ At this time he has traveled to New York and like so many others, the city has trapped forever to the point of serving as inspiration for his new album, "NEW YORK CITY SUITE", this time as a sextet.

NEW YORK CITY SUITE is entirely a work composed by the pianist LUIS GONZALEZ during his stay in New York City in the summer of 2010. The Suite is a collection of 10 pieces, each written in such diverse styles and formats of fuga, nocturn or swing, where you can see influences from classical music, jazz and free. New York has served the composer as a lever inspiration and creative life through music, cultural and cosmopolitan.

As disc sample comment that "Christopher Street" is one of the most famous streets in the Village, where born the most innovative young and fresh jazz. It is an expressive melody and deep wing memorable time. A composition that emerged during walks through the streets of New York or on the city subway. The album closes with another view of the same piece, more gospel, the fruit of many Sunday mornings in Harlem.

"Remembering Bach" is a tribute to the German composer, which has been interpreted LUIS GONZALEZ piano pieces since he was 20 years old in using their characteristic features, imitative counterpoint, but dressed in a rhythm and harmony much more modern. New York is a cosmopolitan city that may even inspire a piece like this.

Luis González Sextet are: Luis González at piano, César Martínez on drums, Joan Solá-Morales at bass, David Morata at violín, Dolors Vidal at celo & Gerard Sibila at clarinets.
